

Name: 1574320777232 pages | File size: 75.Mb

DOWNLOAD

Read more

Joan Van Patten, Elmer Williams, Peggy Williams
ePub | *DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

(Download pdf) Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era

Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era

Joan Van Patten, Elmer Williams, Peggy Williams : Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Celluloid Treasures bookBy carol landmannA really interesting book. I pored over it for quite awhile! Great pictures, too.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy FancynancyGood book, great service!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy KBWGreat Book for the Collector

Encompassing what has been called the 'golden age' of celluloid collectibles, Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era takes a look at the time period from 1885 to 1915. Photo albums; hat, glove, necktie, and handkerchief boxes; hand mirrors; brushes, autograph books; and prayer books featuring pastel portraits of beautiful Victorian women and children from the period characterize this appealing book. 1999 values. AUTHORBIO: Joan Van Patten has written hundreds of trade paper and magazine articles and is a contributor to Schroeder's Antiques Price Guide. She has been on the board of the International Nippon Collectors Club since its inception. As co-founder of the INCC, she also served as its first president and was a director of the club for many years. Joan edited and published the Nippon Notebook and the INCC Newsletter for five years. AUTHORBIO: Elmer and his wife, Peggy, have been in the antiques and collectibles business for more than 25 years. Their primary interest is porcelain and Victorian collectibles, especially the celluloid covered collectibles. They have written numerous articles for trade/antique papers and have done extensive travel throughout the U.S. taking photos and obtaining information for their book, Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era. AUTHORBIO: Peggy and her husband, Elmer, have been in the antiques and collectibles business for more than 25 years. Their primary interest is porcelain and Victorian collectibles, especially the celluloid covered collectibles. They have written numerous articles for trade/antique papers and have done extensive travel throughout the U.S. taking photos and obtaining information for their book, Celluloid Treasures of the Victorian Era. REVIEW: This book contains hundreds of color photographs of celluloid items - photo albums, jewelry boxes, mirrors, sets, necktie glove cases, and much more. There are also vintage Butler Brothers advertisements and other old catalog pages which add interest for the reader.