The projects are easy to read and understand, not enough projects for boys(only 1 specific to boys) but young girls will love it and I and my daughter in law learned something new!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Looks goodBy Missing_HeidiThis is a cute book that I got for my 10 year old grandest-daughter for Christmas. It has a lot of cute projects that I believe she will be able to do on her own. She loves crafts and looms etc. The price was right and shipping was fast (with Prime).0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. projects, but some of the projects are more complicated for the kids shown on the book. I would say this is for 2nd-5th graders.

"What can I make with this ball of yarn?" Finger Knitting Fun is the answer! So quick and simple, a perfect project for children, learning how to knit with your fingers is the best way to start crafting without cumbersome needles! All you need is some yarn and your hands to create modern and sophisticated knitted strands that you can use in any project around the house or everyday fashion. From jewelry and wearable accessories to wall art, gifts, and room decorations, Finger Knitting Fun includes illustrated, step-by-step instructions for 28 projects, which use yarn and other exciting materials such as paracord, leather, and more. DIY Lifestyles expert Vickie Howell provides you with a wonderful resource with the basics of finger knitting and over 28 things to make with the beautiful fabric that you create. Grab that ball of yarn and easily turn it into a charming knitted piece with endless possibilities.

"Vickie Howell has done it yet again with her latest book, Finger Knitting Fun. My daughter keeps asking to learn how to knit so this book may just be the answer to my summer boredom prayers. I love that the projects are so versatile and can work for boys, girls, grade-schoolers, teens, and even adults -- there are several projects inside that I would make and wear for myself. Thanks to Vickie I learned to arm knit, so it makes sense that she teach (me and) my kids to finger knit!" --Jen Perkins, Contributing DIY Writer for BlogHer About the Author Vickie Howell is a knit, crochet, and craft evangelist with a penchant for pop culture, creative parenting, and social media marketing.
